

SOCCPN

The Sex Offender Civil Commitment Programs Network 24th Annual Conference

2023 CALL FOR PAPERS

September 26-27th, 2023

Gaylord Rockies Resort and Convention Center
Aurora, Colorado

SOCCPN invites you to participate in the 2023 conference held immediately before the annual conference of the Association for Treatment of Sexual Abusers (ATSA). All proposals relevant to civil commitment are welcome and we are especially interested in proposals that address:

- Research Updates
- Equity, Diversion & Inclusion
- The use of physiological assessments of deception and how they should be used in treatment and community supervision per best practices.
- Use of biofeedback in treatment programs
- Navigating hybrid workplaces/positions
- Creative approaches to delivering treatment that bridge technology and keep clients engaged
- Increased use of technology in treatment programs and/or treatment planning
- Ethics regarding treatment programs and/or assessments via an electronic platform
- Monitoring of court conditions for conditionally released individuals
- Assessing outcomes
- Program evaluation
- Successful aftercare planning
- Success stories of discharged residents
- Innovative programming
- Gender dysphoria
- Aging populations: management and influence on risk
- Cognitive decline and increases in impulsivity
- Evidence based practice and innovations
- Preparing for unconditional release
- Applying RNR
- Impact of protective factors on risk
- Creating a positive work environment/maintaining staff resilience
- Addressing healthy sexuality in difficult environments

- Diagnoses of Antisocial Personality Disorder and Hebephilia
- Determining when legal thresholds are no longer met
- Evaluation of change and treatment progress
- Assessment of dynamic risk factors
- Community reintegration
- Recidivism rates

SOCCPN is also seeking facilitators and/or topics for roundtable discussions. If you are interested in facilitating a group discussion, please submit a proposal indicating you wish to coordinate a roundtable discussion.

PROPOSALS ARE DUE BY May 5, 2023

Sessions will be 60 - 90 minutes long. Please submit the following with each proposal:

- Title of presentation, name of presenters, and contact information
- Abstract of presentation
- CV for each presenter
- 3-5 measurable and observable learning objectives
- 4-6 true/false questions related to presentation content to test knowledge of materials
- In your presentation, please describe the accuracy and utility of materials presented, the basis of such statements, the limitations of the content being taught, and the severe and most common risks.
- Please indicate any potential conflict of interest (e.g. commercial support interest for sponsors, instructors, content of instruction, or any other relationship that could reasonably be construed as a conflict of interest).

Please send proposals to Jennifer Schneider at:

Jennifer.Schneider@doh.nj.gov

by May 5, 2023

One student presenter will receive free registration for the conference. The SOCCPN Board will review all student submissions and select one presentation based upon relevance and the strength of the proposal.

SOCCPN is approved by the American Psychological Association to sponsor continuing education for psychologists. The Sex Offender Civil Commitment Programs Network maintains responsibility for this program and its content.